MEMORANDUM FOR: Executive Director-Comptroller

SUBJECT : Proposed Briefing for Senior
U. S. Naval Officers

1. This memorandum contains a recommendation for your approval. The recommendation is contained in paragraph 4.

2. After the completion of the recent Project USEFUL orientation course, one student, Lt. Stephen W. Baumgart, Special Operations (OP-345) CNO, briefed his superiors in CNO on the course. In consequence, OTR received an informal request from Lt. Baumgart on behalf of his Commanding Officers that we consider a special briefing for the officers listed below:

Vice Admiral J. B. Colwell (OP-03) DCNO

Rear Admiral J. C. Donaldson (OP-33)

Rear Admiral R. M. Isaman (OP-34)

Rear Admiral M. D. Carmody (OP-35)

Rear Admiral E. A. Ruckner (OP-07)

3. During a visit to CNO, [REDACTED] learned that the officers concerned would like a four-hour briefing at Headquarters, to begin some time after 0900 and to continue after lunch. They are interested in an overall briefing on the organization and functions of the Agency along the lines of your presentation at Project USEFUL; our capabilities in support of special operations, particularly in the maritime field; a briefing on our technical capabilities and the R&D program; coverage of our logistics support capabilities; and a brief description of the role of CIA representatives at the various military Commands. Finally, I believe that a short talk on the Clandestine Services would be in order inasmuch as this subject was rather fully covered during Project USEFUL.

4. The Office of CNO is prepared to send a letter confirming its interest in the briefing and designating the CNO action officer. I believe that such a briefing would be a worthwhile follow-up of Project USEFUL, and I recommend we ask that a letter from CNO be sent.

→ We'd be glad to have them over. We don't really need a letter. Just be sure they really want to and will come. Find out when they would like to come, arrange a mutually acceptable date with Adm. Taylor who will host the lunch, and lay it on.
